Manager of the Month

Meet Savannah,

Savannah joined the exhibit team with a huge task ahead of her of managing the projects of a growing team. She not only tackled that challenge masterfully but has continued to keep everything running smoothly (ask her about keeping the llamas alive) with the addition of also managing other team members. Her ability to maintain order in the often-chaotic process of exhibit design is admirable. She has helped the team become more focused, efficient, and productive. She has great conflict resolution skills and is great at coaching people. Savannah also has a few hidden talents that she has shared with the team, including t-shirt design and audio recording. We are grateful and lucky to have her on our team.

Thank you!
